COLOR LINE DRAWN BY AMERICANS

Miss Augusta Savage,
Famous Sculptress,
Dressed in American
Costume, to Be Presented to American Committee
to Fight Against
The Color Line

Eight American artists, painters and sculptors, comprising a board of trustees of the American Committee to Fight Against the Color Line, have elected Miss Augusta Savage, famous sculptress, to be presented to the American Committee to Fight Against the Color Line.

Miss Savage came here last year after spending a year in the Federal College of Fine Arts in France, where she was elected to the rank of professor.

She is the only woman to have been elected to the rank of professor in the Federal College of Fine Arts in France.

Love's Garden

I PLANTED a seed
In the Garden of Love.
It grew a beautiful
Gift from above.

I nourished it tenderly,
I nourished it long;
It grew to a grand
And beautiful song.

—V. Avis Butler.

Justice

THAT Justice is a blind goddess
Is a thing to which we black are wise.
Her bandage hides two festering sores
That once, perhaps, were eyes.
—Langston Hughes.
